ONLINE COURSES OVERVIEW

- Online classes at SATCS use Google Apps for Education (Google Sites and Google Drive) as its distributed learning portal, or online learning program. If you do not have a SATCS.org email, please contact President@SATCS.org to arrange one, through which you will access the school's email structure and the classroom sites. Some online classes, however, such as Spiritual Formation and Greek, use Skype for desktop, and Skype generally is variously used to maintain a 1:1 learning environment within the context of varying personal schedules. If you have not applied to SATCS but would like to take a course, you may audit any of the non-sequential courses and integrate them later into your Academic Plan after you are accepted. If you are on Academic or Administrative Leave and are ready to restart your program, this registration will begin that process.

Courses offered in the Spring Semester 2018.

- KC1 The Koine Conversation
- NT1 The Synoptic Gospels
- CH1 Church History: Clement to the Reformation
- CH2 History of the Church: The Reformation to Postmodernism
- IPA The Inter-Testament Period
- OT1 Genesis to David
- Systematic Theology

If you would like to schedule another core course not on this list (asynchronously) please confer with the Academic Dean, Dr. Marc Jerry (marc.jerry@satcs.org).

HOW YOU WILL LEARN

- Our online courses maximize the individual's ability to study independently but also to work directly with the course professor in 1:1 format.
- Although almost all our courses may be taken asynchronously; that is, not tied to the semester schedule, typically, assignments are posted weekly and generally consist of reading the posted assignment material and presenting a position in a formal (or informal) written paper or discussion graded or critiqued by your professor with feedback designed to help you grow as a critical thinker, and where appropriate, prepare you for ministry - either in your own circle or in the field as an ordained clergyman.
- A considerable amount of the required reading is now in the public domain and readily accessible. In many courses, the reading is supplied. There is also the SATCS Cyber Library under construction, and students may even request a book from the SATCS physical library where possible and available. All students are first required to take a short orientation course (IC 100) to introduce our basic policies and procedures (or changes); for example, abiding by our honor code and using the Turabian format for citations. Returning students are also required to review the material in the IC 100 classroom, since any emergent program or policy changes will appear there.
